The Meridian

September Sundays (11:00 AM)

Sep. 5 | Ultimate Labor Day

Justice, equity and compassion in human relations. Rev. Amy McKenzie, back from an insightful summer sabbatical; Mike Powelson, Ph.D., history professor at FSU and TCC; Rich Templin, communications director for the Florida chapter of AFL/CIO; and Doug Martin, communications director for the Florida chapter of the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME), will lead us in celebrating Labor Day. Milestones of labor history, provocative thoughts about labor activism as an engaged form of Unitarian Universalism, and memorable labor songs and ballads from our past will help reignite the youthful fervor that many seek in realizing UU ideals. Ultimately, we will consider ways to help extend the justice, equity, and compassion we expect for ourselves and ours to those the world over who labor on our behalf.

Rev. Amy; Guest Speakers: Mike Powelson, Rich Templin, and Doug Martin; Guest Musicians: Outer Circle; Lay Leader: Leslie Wurster

Sep. 12 | Intergenerational Ingathering and Water Ceremony

The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all. The church family reconvenes around the annual water ceremony, remembering where we spent the "lazy days of summer" and marking the beginning of a new year. Bring a thimbleful of water from the lake or river, from Paris, Milwaukee, the Great Salt Lake, or the Pacific Ocean, from wherever you journeyed and pour it into the common vessel. We'll call upon the spirits of those places to gather here with us and remember them as good. Rev. Amy

Sep. 19 | Quit Thinking and Start Singing: Our Annual Music Service

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth. Well, we'll think (and talk) just a little bit about the joy music brings into our lives and how it sustains us. But mostly we'll sing, sing, sing. We have much to celebrate, as we formally dedicate our new grand piano.

Music Director Helen Falb; Lay Leaders: Ed Tribble and Connie Beane

Sep. 26 | Celebrating the Religious Understanding Covenant

Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations. Intergenerational service celebrating the Covenant for Excellence in Religious Understanding, created between UUCT's congregation and the Religious Education program at the Covenant Workshop held the day before. (See p. 3 for more information.) The Covenant for Excellence in Religious Understanding invites us to place lifespan religious education and faith development at the heart of our congregational life.

Lay Leader: DeWayne Carver; Guest Facilitators: Laurel Amabile, Florida District RE program consultant, and Connie Goodbread, facilitator in training

Minister's Message

By Rev. Amy McKenzie

Sabbatical ends, shared settled ministry begins again.

"...silence is only as worthy as what we can bring back from it."

Essay by Pico Iyer in TIME, 1/25/93 (p. 74)

We have shared a lot of silence this summer even though I rely on our conversations to strengthen our shared ministry and I enjoy speaking with and hearing from you. We'll do a lot more of that now!

Many thanks to all who made my sabbatical possible. I'm grateful to everyone who put in extra hours and who became even more available to plan, listen, train, and work, work, work for the good of the congregation.

And now we will recommit to shared ministry and reconnect with each other. If only I knew how. What will our first words be? How long will it take for us to get reacquainted? Will it be easy to talk although we have new ways and changed selves? Where will we share our sabbatical stories?

Of course, the answers to these questions will come from both you and me. I trust that the details will work out smoothly.

The overall picture of my return is clear. I'm glad for our foresight about my reentry into church life. Our plan works great: I start in a month of official beginnings (Ingathering, Youth RE classes) and official planning for the future (Religious Understanding Visioning the weekend of 9/24 - 9/26). I share Sunday service planning and presentation with UUCTers and guest speakers so some of my time is freed up for catching up with the Committee on Ministry (COM), the Board, Staff, Committee Chairs, and YOU.

So call or email me. There will be public settings for sharing our stories (the COM can help me with this), and I'm also happy to sit down with individuals or families over coffee or in my office.

May what we bring back, from the sabbatical silence between us, make our time apart worthwhile.

I've missed you and I look forward to learning of the changes and insights you've gained.

With A Great Big Surge of Gratitude,

(Rev.) Amy

President's Message

By Richard Dempsey

In the good old days, Sundays were by and large a passive experience. The preacher read a text and explained the world and your role and obligations. It ain't that simple any more. Scripture lost authority, and nothing took its place. Instead of certainty, we have uncertainty; roles and obligations pretty much have to be defined by you—individually. Our culture provides no safe models for living. You're on your own.

Of course, since we all occupy the same world, we can flock together, share a UU limb, and consult on the best sources for answers. Art, science, literature, history, religion and philosophy—all the places humans have lodged their best thoughts, their most profound discoveries about life, their most eloquent answers. These must still be converted to the language of our day. They will bend and reshape the way we see the world and our place in it, but not without effort.

UU's must work for nirvana. We aren't given the keys in advance. Our faith is that answers which confer meaning can be found, but we must actively search. And nothing is permanent. The world changes, and we change with it. Answers from last week have to be adjusted. Our faith is like a leap into space on untried wings. It's flap or fall.

So get busy. Take a class, or teach a class. Have expertise? Unique insight? Share it. Found answers that work? Tell us. Don't know where to start? Jump off the limb.

In community,
Richard

Piano Dedication Concert

The Tallahassee community is invited to join members of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Tallahassee in celebrating our new 7-foot Baldwin grand piano. A piano dedication concert will be held in the sanctuary at 7:30 PM on Friday, September 17. It will feature a wide variety of music and musicians from both the church and the wider Tallahassee community. Free child care will be provided, and a reception will be held after the concert. The event is free, but donations will be gratefully accepted (toward completing the fund-raising for the new piano). Contact: Helen Falb (309-6853) with questions or Peggy Lentz (878-2226) to help with the reception.

Covenanting for Excellence in Religious Understanding

As part of our strategic plan to strengthen our lifespan RE program, the church Board and staff have arranged for the specialized Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA) Covenanting for Excellence in Religious Understanding workshop to be conducted by a trained Covenant facilitator. A weekend of events surrounding this process is planned.

On Friday, September 24, 6 :30 - 8:00 PM, in the sanctuary, we will be hosting a Covenanting Kick-off Party. Come enjoy the camaraderie of our wonderful congregation and get to meet our covenanting facilitator. All are welcome to join in this fun evening! Childcare will be provided.

You are invited to participate in the Covenant for Excellence in Religious Understanding Process scheduled for Saturday, September 25, from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM in the sanctuary. A primary focus of this workshop will be the sharing of ideas and suggestions that will help us to clarify our expectations for lifespan religious education in our congregation and our relationship with our religious education professional. All concerned parents, teachers, adult enrichment facilitators and participants, and congregational leaders are encouraged to participate in this facilitated, day-long process. Lunch, snacks, and childcare will be provided.

The covenant that we create through this process will be shared and celebrated during the Sunday morning worship service on September 26, followed by a reception in the sanctuary for all ages. We hope to have many guests from the Florida District and other Florida UU churches.

Please call DeWayne Carver (402-0622) for more information about the covenanting, to tell us you can come to the workshop, or if you would like to help prepare for the workshop.

Mountain Notes

By Linda Winn-Brown

It is unfortunate that The Mountain Retreat has been cancelled for this Labor Day. There simply were not enough folks that could go. Hopefully, we can better plan for a retreat next year and get a larger group. We need at least 20 to make it a good retreat. So, please be thinking about 2005 Labor Day weekend!

Information on any open-participation, upcoming programs at The Mountain is available on-line in the More Meridian or contact Linda (562-4755, lwinn41@earthlink.net) or The Mountain Retreat and Learning Centers, Highlands, NC (828-526-5838, www.mountaincenters.org).

Caring Network News

By Joanne Taylor, Caring Ministries Chairperson

We keep in our thoughts and prayers, minds and hearts... all who are recovering from illnesses and surgeries.

We are delighted that Don Crosby came through his colon surgery so well and was already back at church looking great on August 15.

Tom Pratt, who had surgery for colon cancer on August 14, is recovering nicely from the surgery and has begun six months of chemotherapy.

We appreciate all who have been so generous in providing meals for the families of those having surgery.

Congratulations to Bonnie, Derrick, Dean, and Autumn Foster. Bonnie had a baby boy, Charles Mikael Foster, born August 10 at 7:48 AM. He weighed 9 pounds even and was 21 and 3/4 inches long.

Former members Byron Spice and Kathryn Hansman-Spice are settled in Flagler Beach and welcome UUCT visitors to share the view and activities with them. They have two offices/guest rooms with Murphy beds. Contact them at 386-439-5616 or by e-mail: khst@bellsouth.net or byronspice@bellsouth.net.

TEAM

The Tallahassee Equality Action Ministry (TEAM) issue committees have been meeting separately and working on the current issues: housing, healthcare, public transportation, and teen-age needs. UUCT is not represented on any of these committees at the moment. We desperately need UUCTers who have the time to participate on one of them! To learn more about TEAM and participating, contact Rev. Amy (383-9186, revamq@earthlink.net).

Membership News

We welcome new friends

- Louise Clay
- Carrie Hamby

Next new member recognition is in October.

To explore becoming a member or supporting friend, contact Membership Chair Trudy Deyle (422-1057) or a Sunday greeter.

Help visitors get to know us by wearing your name tag! New members and friends receive name tags. Contact office for replacements ($4.75).

Memorial Plaques

Recent additions at UUCT are two memorial plaques. The first, on the toddler playground, is: "In Memory of Wilma Spice, Known as Aunt Wilma To Generations of Sunday School Pupils" by her son, Byron Spice.

The second, on the main playground playscape, is: "In Loving Memory of Rev. Richard R. Lee, Ph.D." by daughters Elizabeth and Kate and wife Christine Boczarska. It contains this quote from Dylan Thomas: "In the sun that is young once only, time let me play and be golden in the mercy of his means."

Auction / Yard Sale Swap

We are moving the yard sale to the spring and the silent auction to the fall. Tentative months: Auction in late October or early November 2004. Yard sale in March 2005. This will allow people who are usually out of state in the summer to offer and bid on dinners and other services in the silent auction, and will make the yard sale coincide with spring cleaning and lovely spring weather. Watch next month's Meridian for a notice about the date of the Silent Auction, and start thinking of interesting dinners, parties and services you can donate.

Buildings and Grounds Thanks

Thanks to those who participated in the August 14 workday:

Don Berger, Tom Chase, Randall Gann, Dave Harvey, George Knight, Dorothy Mann, Steve Urse, Francis Ventre, Austin and Pierce Mooney.

Playground and other areas were weeded and mulched. Leaves and branches were removed from the sanctuary roof; gutters were cleaned. Trees and shrubs were trimmed. Sanctuary windows were washed on the south and east sides. Leaves were blown away and debris and gravel picked up from sidewalks and key areas of the driveways. The courtyard sidewalks were edged.

Thanks For UUCT Caring

From Lorin Pratt: "Tom and I appreciate all of the support, encouragement and gifts of food from everyone during this difficult time. Your generosity and concern have helped make this ordeal much more bearable. We are so fortunate to have all of you in our lives!"

Thank You From Kathie Mackie

A big thank you again to Trudy Deyle for coordinating the very nice birthday potluck for me in July. And thank you everyone for cards, gifts, and gifts of money. It means a great deal to me that so many people in this UU congregation came and celebrated my birthday with me.

A Big Thank You From Beryl & Wilmer Cassiday

The Cassidays wish to thank UUCT for allowing them to have their 50th Wedding Anniversary celebration in the sanctuary. Beryl and Wilmer are the parents of member Linda McConnell and administrative assistant Kathie Mackie and the grandparents of Holly Mackie, nursery caretaker and member, and Terra McConnell, Linda's daughter and frequent visitor.

Thanks From UU Parent

My daughter, Jessica, is attending FSU and has had very positive experiences contacting the campus UU people there. I am a born and raised UU and the church administrator at First Parish UU in Chelmsford, MA..... I did worry about Jessica losing some connections when she started college. Evidently, you are doing something right, and I only wish my oldest (at college in Amherst MA) had the same experiences. Making sure our college kids realize that UUism is a real, viable religion once they are outside of parents' influence is so very critical. I wanted to say thank you. -Cindy Gist

Harmony Camp Thanks

Harmony Camp was a huge success with 58 campers from first to ninth grades. First we want to express our appreciation to the entire congregation for their support of the camp. We also want to thank all the amazing volunteers who made this wonderful experience possible for kids who, according to evaluation surveys completed by the parents with their children, had a fabulous time.

Act quickly to choose the class or classes that interest you and either sign up on a class list at the Religious Education table on Sunday morning or contact the person listed below for each group to reserve a place.

FALL CLASSES

Choices for Sustainable Living. The class will hold an organizational meeting and order workbooks on Sat. October 2 at 10:30 AM in Rm C. The course is a nine-session course exploring the meaning of sustainable living and the ties between lifestyle choices and their impact on the earth, with participants taking turns facilitating sessions. For more information on topics that will be covered, please go to the Sustainable Living website, www.nwei.org/pages/sustainable.html. There is a sign up sheet in the sanctuary. Contact Kathie Mackie (385-5115, uuct@nettally).

Christianity without God. The class will meet Tuesdays at 7:30 in Rm K and be taught by Rev. Harold Hawkins, using the book of the same name by Dr. Lloyd Gerring. The book is based on historical evidence and answers questions such as: What is Christianity? Who made God? Is God dead and why? Who invented the Holy Trinity? How did Jesus become God? How did God become man? When did Christian Humanism begin? Was Jesus the wise man par excellence? Why must Christianity become non-theistic?

Rev. Hawkins writes, "This material will help students clarify their faith based on historical evidence and will inspire those who have wondered about their UU commitment." The book is $17 for those who want to buy it, and Rev. Hawkins will order books for those who pay in advance. The class will be limited to twelve persons and start as soon as people are signed up and books purchased. Contact: Harold Hawkins (893-1331).

Dream Interpretation Workshop.

The workshop, facilitated by Elizabeth Vigil, will assist people in interpreting their dreams. Every participant is advised to read Where People Fly & Water Runs Uphill : Using Dreams to Tap the Wisdom of the Unconscious, by Rev. Jeremy Taylor (<http://www.amazon.com/exec/obidos/search-handle-url/index=books&field-author=Taylor,+Rev.+Jeremy/104- 5363817-8828743>Rev. Jeremy Taylor). The books costs $10.49 plus shipping but qualifies for reduced price shipping on Amazon.com.

"Based on intensive study and thousands of case histories, this remarkable guide opens up the world of dreams by showing readers how to remember and interpret dreams, establish a dream group, learn the universal symbolism of dreaming, and change their lives using their dreams." Each member of the group will be encouraged to read aloud one dream each week. The group members will then work together to interpret one or two dreams. The workshop will run for 8 weeks on Wednesday evenings in Room K from 7:00 to 9:30 PM beginning Oct. 6 and skipping Nov. 24. Contact Elizabeth Vigil (656-992).

Four Spiritualities - Growing Your Spirituality. The Four Spiritualities, by Peter Tufts Richardson, describes the underlying patterns of spirituality that are a part of every religious tradition and provides a framework for finding your own path among myriad contemporary spiritual choices. The class, following the workshop guide that accompanies the book, will include exercises and outlines as a guide to applying the Four Spiritualities to your life. Classes will meet on Wednesday mornings at 10:30 AM in Rm C, beginning in October and facilitated by DRE Maggie Geraci. For more information, contact Maggie (877-6301, dremaggie@direcway.com).

Knitting. This class, taught by Chelsea Fox, is for people who would like to learn or improve skills, and/or knit with others. Chelsea will assist with learning basic skills and provide support. Lessons will be based on a book, The Knitting Goddess, by Deborah Bergman – a spiritual/mythological exploration of the art of knitting. Each project corresponds with a story from the book. Depending on time, we may complete only one or two projects.

Everyone is welcome regardless of gender, age or skill level. Beginners should start by buying a pair of US size 8, straight knitting needles and 1-2 skeins of worsted weight yarn (Sugar 'n Cream or Lion brand 100% cotton is good) from any craft store. This is an investment of less than $10. Talk to Chelsea if you need help buying the supplies. The Knitting Goddess is $12.95 in paperback and can be found at Borders or on the internet. Purchase of the book is optional. The class will meet Thursdays at 7:00 PM in Room 3&6 starting October 7. Contact: Chelsea Fox (339-9103).

Nature-Centered Spirituality. Taught by Don Crosby, this class will meet each Wednesday in Room C from 7:15 - 8:30 PM from Sept. 22 - Nov. 10. It will be a lecture - discussion class with assigned readings for each week. We will work our way through two books: Karl E. Peters's Dancing With the Sacred: Evolution, Ecology, and God (Trinity Press International, 2002) and Connie Barlow's Green Space, Green Time: The Way of Science (Springer-Verlag, 1997). Both books are available on Amazon.com, in either new or used versions. Persons signing up for the class should order these books well in advance of the beginning of the course and read the first five chapters of Peters's book in preparation for the first class (the chapters are short).

In the class, we will explore ways in which these two authors find profound spiritual meaning and value in our present scientific descriptions and explanations of cosmological, terrestrial, and biological evolution, as well as of the complex interrelations of life and non-life, humans and non-humans on earth. Connie Barlow, it will be remembered, spoke in an Adult Forum and a Sunday service last February, as well as in a special workshop. Contact: Don Crosby (385-3292).

New UU sessions are offered on a regular basis for those new to Unitarian Universalism and UUs new to UUCT. The next sessions will be Mondays 9/27 and 10/4 in Rm L, taught by Rev. Amy and a church member. A sign-up sheet is on the sanctuary back counter, or contact the church office (385-5115, uuct@nettaly.com) or Membership Chair Trudy Deyle (422-1057, gdeyle@juno.com).

There is a nominal charge of $5 to cover class materials, and you need to have a copy of The Artist's Way: A Spiritual Path to Higher Creativity by Julia Cameron. Each week we cover a different chapter and work on exercises (either from the book or gathered from other sources). Harmony Camp News

By Joanne Taylor

The week of August 2–6 was very exciting, with forty-eight Harmony Camp participants at UUCT from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. every day. Our campers were Caucasian, Chinese, African American, Egyptian, Pakistani, Unitarian Universalist, Jewish, biracial, Quaker, Christian, and Moslem. Someone commented on the first day that we looked like a little United Nations.

Central to the camp philosophy was the opportunity for every child to choose the four classes in which he or she would participate for one hour each day. Another key theme common to all sessions and classes was their relationship to diversity and peacemaking. In our view that was an important accomplishment.

All campers participated in a community time during the first and last hour of camp each day. Kate Taluga, our camp director, led these sessions. They included making choices for the four classes to be attended each day, playing cooperative games, hearing stories pertinent to the camp theme, processing the day's activities, and having snacks prepared by the cooking classes.

Two special programs were presented during community time. Kaki Pope, an audiologist, explained hearing loss, remediation of hearing deficits, and communication issues of the hearing impaired. Campers also heard a presentation about the Underground Railroad by Geraldine Johnson-Johnson of the Riley House Museum. The information presented by these volunteers was excellent and resulted in many interesting questions and comments from the children.

Among the numerous courses and classes offered were yoga, meditation, haiku writing, journaling, "In Our World" (a class on diversity), peer mediation/peacemaking, nature walks and conservation study, oral history study (recording from elders at nearby Harbor Chase), interviews with members of UUCT, snack preparation, Spanish and sign language, drumming, singalongs with a guitar player and songwriter, singing songs from the time of the Underground Railroad, weaving, making drinking gourds, making paper quilts using patterns from the Underground Railroad, puppet making, selection and practice of puppet shows to be presented on Friday, and outside play. As you can see, a great variety of sessions was offered affording something appealing to everyone. The quality and quantity of experiences for every child was remarkable.

We were fortunate to have thirty-one gifted volunteers, who graciously gave of their time and talents to make our camp a success. We also had a great staff of nine: a camp director; instructors in drumming, singalong practice, and yoga; child care providers who worked before and after camp hours; and cleaning services personnel. When staff members providing child care didn't have children to supervise during regular camp hours, they helped wherever they were needed. For example, Maggie assisted in playground supervision, and Alana helped with puppet show practice.

On Friday morning during community time, Katya Taylor taught dances of universal peace. We had abbreviated class sessions and then assembled in the auditorium for five delightful puppet shows from various cultures, all teaching something about harmony. The audience of students, parents, and staff thoroughly enjoyed the puppet shows, student displays of handmade crafts, peer mediators' receipt of peacemaker buttons, and dances of universal peace.

On Friday afternoon we had regular sessions, ending with an opportunity for every child to create a diagram. The diagram showed the people the child knew when he or she arrived at camp on Monday and the new ones the child knew by Friday. Children also wrote comments about how they felt on the first and last days. Many said they were nervous the first day but had many more friends and felt completely comfortable by the last day.

Evaluations of the camp were completed by parents and their children. The comments were very complimentary, with many stating their intentions to attend again next year if the camp is continued. This is our intent. On Monday evening after the camp ended, we had a debriefing at the home of Tom and Katya Taylor. Tom facilitated a focus group, and we created a framework for next year's planning process. We look forward to having the incredibly strong support of our congregation again next year.

Campus Ministry Corner

By Chelsea Fox, Campus Ministry Coordinator

The Fall semester has just begun, and the "in-flux" University UUs are simply trying to keep things running smoothly and, as usual, get our name out there. Our main goal is continuous and determined outreach, mostly on the FSU campus. Ideally, we would be known to all interested UU-minded young adults and college students from all 3 campuses in Tallahassee. As it is now, I believe we are falling short of the mark.

Each week, we set up an info table at FSU, and typically only one person is sitting behind it, Ansel Bailey-Mershon (BIG THANKS!). But one is not enough. Please consider giving an hour or more of your time each Wednesday between 10 AM and 2 PM to help us be known to Tallahassee's young people.

Our meetings are held bi-monthly: Mondays 9/13 and 9/27 at 6:30 PM this month, locations to be determined. Our activities this semester will likely focus on activism and the upcoming election. We are also working on our own website.

Coffee Hour: We meet at 6:30 every Friday at All Saints Café, which is in the building that was once called Javaheads, 903 Railroad Avenue, one block south of Gaines Street.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions, comments, or willingness to help: chelsuu@yahoo.com ~ 421-1575
